FAC Spotlight: Surplus Auctions: Purchase Items for Pennies on the $

While most of us don't have need for a dump truck or fork lift, perhaps your family's business does. Or a friend's business. Or maybe you need a post driver or compressor.

State surplus auctions are a great way to buy all sorts of equipment, cars, furniture and more for just pennies on the dollar. And you can buy them from a variety of online or in-person events.

The big mac-daddy auction is September 30—the annual Transportation surplus equipment sale. This year is no different with a myriad of items including:

- Dump Trucks
- Backhoes
- Brush Chippers
- Tractors
- Transmission Jacks
- Tool Boxes
- PTO Shafts
- Generators
- Weed Eaters
- Traffic Cones

Who doesn't need a truck with a snow plow and anti-icing apparatus or a dump truck full of brush chips cordoned off by traffic cones from the weed whackers? Or a backhoe for digging those really big holes? It's almost like adult Tonka land!

A list of items is on the Finance website and pictures on Facebook—KYSurplus.Property.

So, you don't need major equipment, but you might need a farm truck or a used car. If that's the case, then the state fleet auction is the place to be. The Oct. 14 auction will have nearly 300 vehicles up for sale, so one might be the perfect fit for you.

If you don't need heavy equipment or a used car, you can still check out all kinds of items for sale everyday at the Surplus Property eBay store. Or check the Finance website to see when there are spot bid sales.

If you'd like to receive email notifications of upcoming sales, go to the Public Auction page and click on the red envelope icon to sign up.

KY HORSE PARK HOSTS BOOK SIGNING WITH ELLEN HARVEY

'Standardbred Old Friends' Profiles Breed in Stories and Photos

Author Ellen Harvey will sign her book on Wed., Oct. 1, 2014, from 10 a.m.-noon. A collection of endearing stories on the lives of legendary Standardbred horses, this book is a collaboration with award-winning equine photographer Barbara Livingston, whose popular books "Old Friends" and "More Old Friends," painted a sentimental portrait of champion racehorses long gone from the spotlight.

Battle of Perryville State Historic Site Commemorates 1862 Battle

Perryville Battlefield State Historic Site will commemorate the anniversary of the largest Civil War battle in Kentucky during the weekend of Oct. 4-5.

The weekend will include military demonstrations at 2 p.m. both days. There will also be speakers, living history interpreters, interaction with the soldiers in camp life demonstrations, antique and period vendors and food vendors. A special program on the "Life of the Soldier," focusing on camp life, will be conducted both days. The park museum will also be open.

Admission is $10 per person; children 10 and under are free. Gates open at 9 a.m. both days. Guests should expect to walk and may want to bring chairs.

Spirit Hunters of Central Kentucky (as seen on the Travel Channel's "Ghost Adventures") will conduct a paranormal investigation on Saturday at 6:30 p.m. Call the park at 859-332-8631 for tickets. The cost is $20 per person; not recommended for children under 12.

The Battle of Perryville on Oct., 8, 1862, was the largest and bloodiest engagement of the American Civil War fought within Kentucky's borders. Thousands of soldiers were engaged in a desperate battle that left nearly 7,500 men killed and wounded. The significance of the battle was considerable and not only affected the state, but also the nation.

Perryville Battlefield is 45 miles southwest of Lexington. For more information about Perryville and the events planned for Oct. 4-5, visit www.perryvillebattlefield.org.
